

I have been informed of the replacement possibility of the radio station K-Love with an LPFM station. I would like to go on the record provides this community with a family-friendly radio option. It provides valuable information regarding all types of family situation supports and an uplifting encouraging music base. It is a wonderful option to other radio stations that offer sexual depressing type information. Please reconsider replacing this positive input that I personally have come to count on and enjoy.